LOOKING OVER the site of the new Randall County Junior Livestock Association show barn are John Brazzil, county agent; Bill Wilson, head of the building finance committee; Otis Parker, association president; and Duane Howard, association secretary-treasurer. Actual work on the building will start in the immediate future.

Livestock Show Barn Construction Begins

Groundwork has alread begun on the Randall County Junior Livestock Association building, according to J. O. Parker, president of the association.

Parker said caliche base is presently being laid on the property and work on the building will start in the immediate future.

Bill Wilson, heading a special fund campaign for construction purposes, said the board of directors of the association met last Wednesday night with the contractor, Fletcher Sims. Sims told the group that he has ordered arches and decking for the building.

Wilson said approximately one-half of the money needed for construction is now on deposit in the First National Bank.

"There are still several pledges and commitments which will boost the fund," Wilson added.

He said he hoped people will continue to give generously to the fund.

More fund raising projects are still in store. There will be a farm machinery-livestock auction held on the association lots May 20.

John Brazzil, county agent is taking donations to the sale. Brazzil said all proceeds from all items which will be auctioned off will go into the building fund.

Anyone wishing to donate machinery or livestock to the association can contact Brazzil at the county agent's office.

One other project is slated.

Tickets are still available for a camping trailer which will be given away June 1. Anyone desiring tickets may obtain them from association officials, Wilson said.

Stamp Show Saturday

The annual Golden Spread Stamp and Coin Show opens Saturday in Amarillo, according to Cohen Penick, president of the stamp group.

Penick said the show will last two days in the Amarillo College gymnasium.

"We are expecting a large crowd of collectors and interested persons," Penick said. He added that dealers will be on hand to sell both stamps and coins.

Admission to the show will be 25 cents per person over 12 years of age.

Penick said anyone desiring additional information about the show can call him at his residence in Canyon.

Judge Orders Injunction In Carport Case

Petition for injunction to prevent continued encroachment of city right-of-way by a carport belonging to E. T. Cummings was granted in district court Wednesday afternoon.

Cummings was granted 90 days to make necessary corrections.

Witnesses testifying at the hearing were Bill McMorries, registered professional engineer; Bill York, city manager; O. W. "Bud" Parker, chairman of the city board of adjustments; and Cummings.

Cummings has been found guilty twice of violating a city ordinance stating there shall be a five foot side yard. On each count of guilty he has been fined $50. Both cases have been appealed to county court.

In Wednesday's testimony, McMorries said his survey shows the carport extends some 9 and one-half feet into city right-of-way.

York later said no building permit was issued for construction. Parker told the court that the carport was not approved by the board of adjustments.

Cummings took the stand and admitted building the carport without a permit. He also stated that some 20 to 30 days later the city manager told him that he would have to cut it off about 5 feet to satisfy the ordinance. Cummings said he did this.

On cross examination Cummings said he realized the carport extends over city right-of-way.

York was called back to the stand but the judge overruled a question asked by Cumming's attorney.

In summing up his opinion the judge said that other violations in the city should be corrected.

Students Add Twist To Trading Stamp Use

Trading stamps have been used for a lot of things, but the West Texas State College Student Senate, campus governing body, has decided to use them to pay off a long standing debt.

A stained glass window in the library was pain-stakingly placed in a big west window back in 1956 by Hans Tatschl, professor of art at the University of New Mexico. He was assisted by WT art instructor Chris Gikas. They used some $3,000 worth of materials.

A campaign at that time to obtain sufficient donations to cover the cost of materials was unsuccessful.

The Student Association is now seeking to pay off the debt, not necessarily through cash donations, but through green stamps or Canyon Buyers Bonus Stamps, which can be redeemed for supplies for the New Mexico artist.

"We need about 700 books of stamps to pay off that debt," said Dwight High, student body president from Elkhart, Kans. "We would appreciate help from all over the Panhandle."

The Student Senate has agreed to be the collection agency for stamps on the campus, and area donors may send their stamps to Nancy Welch at Box 864, WT Station, in Canyon.

Highway Work Begins Soon

Work on highways 60 and 87 will being in the near future, according to highway department officials.

Work will include asphalt concrete pavement and seal coat from five miles west of Canyon to two miles north of junction 60 and 87.

The job will take 75 working days, according to Charles W. Smith, district highway engineer at Amarillo.

Gilvin-Terrill, Inc., will do the work for $69,673.

Randall Court Divides County Road-Bridge Fund

Randall commissioners passed a 44-56 per cent split on the road and bridge fund, 56 percent going to the northern precincts and the remainder going to southern precincts, in their meeting Monday.

Two commissioners, C. Y. Johnson and B. R. Jones, voted against the proposition. Just before voting on the matter commissioners rejected a bid made by Johnson and seconded by Jones proposing a split on a source of tax basis.

Judge Wayland Angel vetoed the source bid and okeyed the 44-56 split.

"I can't see putting the county back to prehistoric ages," he remarked after voting against the souce proposition. "If you stop rural development we will eventually stop city develpment."

According to Monday's decision, $144,625 will remain in the southern part of the county and $180,375 will go to the northern precincts.

Although no final division was made between the precincts, commissioners Clarence Beckman and Glenn Dowlen said they would be happy to settle their share on a mileage basis.

Jones said he would like to have another week to consider what steps he and Johnson will take in sharing their portion.

Last year each northern precinct received 30 per cent and the southern precincts received 20 per cent each.

In a session before Jones took office commissionrs voted to divide the fund on a mileage basis. Then, in a meeting January 3 Johnson made the motion, seconded by Jones, to divide the money on a tax source basis. No vote was made on Johnson's motion until Monday.

The fund was never split on the mileage basis and the precincts have been operating out of one fund.

Dallas Suburbs Used as Example

"Canyon's convenient location to Amarillo offers a great possibility of explosive growth," Marvin Springer, city planner from Dallas, told commissioners at their regular meeting Monday night.

Springer appeared before commissioners to discuss the possibility of his firm drawing up a master plan for Canyon. He pointed out Texas towns as examples where growth has taken place with no plan.

"Towns around Dallas have mushroomed from villages to cities of 40,000 within 10 years and the city government has had no plan for this growth," he added.

Springer emphasized that a master plan gives a controlled, orderly growth to a community.

"We will not come in and present just our views for your city," he said. "The plan should be based in the community and to do this we have to have the help of the citizenry."

Springer said it would be proper to have a board representing the people of Canyon working closely with any planner who undertakes the job.

Commissioners have set interviews with other planners.

In other business Buddy and Jack Taylor and Hosea Foster discussed water and sewer extension agreements with the city.

They told commissioners they would like to open Thompson Lane in Pioneer Estates and wanted to know what to expect in the way of water-sewer installations.

Jack Taylor said he would like to know definite plans of the city so that he can go ahead with development.

Commissioners said no definite plans have been made other than extending water and sewer connections 100 feet for home builders. This provision is made in an ordinance now in effect.

Jack Taylor pointed out that this is a holdback to speculative builders.

"Any builder working on a small scale can take advantage of this but we can't in the case of building 10 houses at a time," he said.

Commissioners agreed with him.

Buddy Taylor said he would like to see everyone treated equally. "It looks like if one does not get benefits of extensions, no one should."

Commissioners said they do not know if the city can presently afford going into payback agreements with developers but will discuss the issue at the next meeting.

The city commission approved the purchase of two radios, one for a mobile unit and one for a base station. Bill York, city manager, said the water department will have the mobile unit.

Potential building inspectors will be interviewed by York during the next few days. The commission approved employing one.

Insurance payment for the year totaling $5,555 was approved. This includes all types of insurance for all departments.

Thieves Take Instruments

Thieves took an instrument panel from a precinct 3 road maintainer parked in Palo Duro Canyon State Park sometime Thursday night, according to the Randall County sheriff's department.

The grader was left parked on the canyon floor Thursday evening and when workers returned to the job Friday they discovered the instrument panel was missing.

Included in the group were an amp meter, heat guage, fuel pressure indicator and an oil pressure indicator.

Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft.

Fire Destroys Car Wiring

The Canyon Fire Department was called out Thursday night to extinguish a fire that damaged a late model Corvair.

Robert Osborn, Freshman at West Texas State College owned the vehicle. The fire occurred at 10 p.m. between Stafford Hall and the Fine Arts Building.

Osborne said the engine has caught fire once before. He estimated damages at over $300. He said most of the damage was done to the wiring near the rear of the engine.

Charlie Foster, fire captain, and Jack Jennings, fire marshal, answered the call.

Moisture Follows Aphids As Major Farm Problem

Although worries caused by green bugs have become subdued during the past several days Randall County grain farmers still do not see a clear trail to a bumper harves.

John Brazzil, county agent, said moisture has become a major problem for dryland farmers.

"Many of us believe there will be some wheat made on the present moisture, but in order to have a fine crop this year we should have rain within the next 10 days," he said.

"There is some deep moisture but it will not carry a heavy yield," he added.

Only a few weeks ago millions of green aphids raided Randall grain field inflicting losses, ranging from severe to moderate in degree.

"We still have green bugs," Brazzil said, "but they do not constitute the threat they did two weeks ago."

Brazzil pointed out that the weather now is more favorable to predatory insects. Lady bugs, deadly consumer of the green bug, are beginning to reproduce naturally.

Brazzil said the green bugs will be found in county fields up into May.

He said that only a few farmers had to plow up fields of grain.

"Most of this was barley," he said. "The aphid seems to prefer barley to wheat."

"Most damage was in spots," he added. "Hardly a farmer in the county missed a yellow spot or two of grain in his fields."

Brazzil said that some of the damage will not be discovered until the grain develops further. "We still have to wait see stem and head development before we can accurately estimate the damage."

Police Chief Warns of Summer Burglars

L. D. Caldwell, Canyon chief of police, has several tips for homeowners reminding them of simple percautions they should take this summer when leaving for an evening or for a vacation trip.

This next week, April 30-May 6, is observed as Burglary Prevention Week and Caldwell said this is an appropriate time for such reminders.

"Arrangements should be made to cancel daily deliveries if you plan on being away several days he said. "Do not pull all blinds and shades giving the house a 'closed-up' look."

Caldwell said he would like anyone who will be gone for a long period of time to contact the police department.

He added that valuables should be stored in a safe place.

Another tip Caldwell gave was to connect a lamp or two to an automatic time so that lights turn on at dusk and turn off again at bedrime to create a "lived-in" look.

Last year 12 burglaries were reported in the city and Caldwell believes this number can be dropped with a little planning and preparation.

Eight blasts on the fire siren means that a tornado is approaching the city, Bill Sternenberg, firechief, said this week.

Six blasts denotes all clear.

Little League Tryouts Slated at 4 p.m. Today

Baseball try-outs in the Little League majors will be held at 4:00 p.m. Thursday afternoon in the elementary school, according to Charlie Foster.

This is the 9 to 12-year-old age group. Players auction will be held at the Fire Station at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening.

"We are going to have to have some help in the minor leagues," Foster declared. Anyone interested in managing or helping to manage a minor league shoud contact Foster or come to the player auction early.

Tryouts for the Babe Ruth League will be held at 5:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in Conner Park. These try-outs are for boys aged 13 to 15 who have never belonged to this league. In order to qualify boys must present birth certificates to Dr. George de Schweinitz, 2520 Sixth Ave.

Coaches for the year are Roy Greer, Eddie Holcomb, Earl Crump, Durward Brown, George Stevens and Earl Byerley.

Grand Jury Indicts 5

Monday's session of the grand jury resulted in five indictments being filed.

Three were for hog theft and one was for trailer theft.

On the new grand jury are Harold Smith, C. F. Partain, Jack Burgan, J. Pat Malone, V. J. McGee, R. R. McCartor, E. L. Hales, Harold Erwin, all of Amarillo; Mrs. T. D. MacOwan, John H. Dietz and H. R. Fulton Jr. of Canyon; and Bill D. Wood of Bushland.

May 31 Deadline Set On Grain Program

Final date for feed grain farmers to sign up in the new feed grain program is May 31, according to Doyle Thomas, ASC office manager.

He said that notices of base acreages, rates and other pertinent information are being prepared and will be placed in the mail sometime this week.

"We hope to be able to start taking applications by next week," he said.

"There has been some changes from the previous information put out," he related. "One of them is a provision that the acreage reduction can be taken off either corn or grain sorghum where a farm has a base on both. A farmer who has only grain sorghum base may reduce his acres and plant corn instead. The same holds true for a farmer whith a corn base. He may plant grain sorghum instead of corn.

Thomas said there have been some misunderstandings on dry and irrigated acreage.

"A farmer may place irrigated acreage in the program and he will not violate his agreement if he waters part of his dryland acreage. However, if this is done, the payments will be reduced back to the dryland rate," he pointed out.

Acreage designated under the agreement may not be grazed after May 31, according to Thomas. This acreage can be summer fallowed or used for conservation practices.

"We are in a position now to explain to each farmer just how the program will work on his farm," Thomas said. "However, we will not start taking applications until probably sometime next week."

Thomas strongly urges all feed grain farmers to contact his office before May 31 and get details concerning the program.

He said he would be happy to go over the program with anyone desiring more information.

Pickup involved in the collision was driven by Alfred S. Hamblin of Happy.

R. C. Reynolds, city patrolman investigated and took young Thrasher to the hospital.

The doctor treating Thrasher said he suffered only minor injuries.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

By Troy Martin

We received letters from both Senator Blakely and Congressman Walter Rogers about the alleged Tito cablegram.

The State department denies that such a cablegram was sent.

Following is the text of the letter received by Senator Blakely from Assistant Secretary of State Brooks Hays.

Dear Senator Blakley:

Thank you for your communication of April 10, 1961, enclosing a letter from Mr. W. M. Anderson of Amarillo, Texas. Mr. Anderson requests information about a report of a cable allegedly sent by the Department of State to President Tito of Yugoslavia at the time of the Hungarian Revolt.

I can assure you that the Department certainly did not send a telegram to President Tito of of Yugoslavia saying, "The government of the United States does not look with favor upon governments unfriendly to the Soviet Union on the borders of the Soviet Union." We believe that reports of this nature may have stemmed from a distortion of speeches made by President Eisenhower and Secretary Dulles at that time.

On October 31, 1956, President Eisenhower said: "We have also, with respect to the Soviet Union, sought clearly to remove any false fears that we would look upon any new governments in these Eastern European countries as potential military allies. We have no such ulterior purpose. We see these peoples as friends, and we wish simply that they be friends who are free."

Secretary Dulles stated on October 27, 1956: "And let me make this clear, beyond a possibility of doubt: The United States has no ulterior purpose in desiring the independence of the satellite countries. Our unadulterated wish is that these peoples, from whom so much of our own national life derives, should have soverignty restored and that they should have governments of their own free choosing. We do not look upon these nations as potential military allies. We see them as friends and as part of a new and friendly and no longer divided Europe. We are confident that their independence, if promptly accorded, will contribute immensely to stabilize peace throughout all of Europe, West and East.

I am returning your constituent's letter for your files. If we can be of any further assistance to you, please do not hesitate to call on us.

Sincerely yours,

Brooks Hays
Assistant Secretary

Congressman Rogers forwarded us a letter from Secretary Hays which was similar in substance.

The facts speak for themselves. The policy of abandonment of Eastern Europe espoused by both the President and Secretary of State in these two statements must have had a discouraging effect upon the peoples of Russia's satellites.

At Cape Canaveral alone, there have been more than 100 wildcat strikes costing more than 160,000 man-days of work and we are supposed to be behind in the missle race.

Congressional investigators learned that our missle program is being held up by strikes in spite of the fact that day laborers on occasion have been paid as high as $500 a week, with overtime. Pay for electricians, plumbers and iron workers ranged up to $900 a week in some cases, with overtime. We are at war and Cape Canaveral is the front line trench. What would happen to one of our soldiers who called a strike in the front line.

The same and more ought to happen to a sleek, overpaid civilian who strikes on such an important project when his country's back is to the wall.

We believe that the sedition laws of this country should be strengthened.

We are at war. We think Congress should recognize this fact and provide appropriate penalties for these who advocate the overthrow of this country by force.

We think that loyalty oaths should be required of everyone who holds a position with any arms of the government right down to the county court house. Yes, we believe that this same oath should be required of people who operate and staff medias of information, such as newspapers, radio and television stations. These would be first to be seized in event of a Red take-over of this country. Drastic times require drastic measures. We could protect ourselves legally by due process of law without fear that the innocent would be persecuted.

For those who would refuse to take such a loyalty oath we only have one thing to say, "The guilty flee when no man pursueth."

We are wholeheartedly for any legal method we can use to combat the Red threat. We believe that any legislation needed to enhance our stand should be enacted and quickly.

What steps did we take to head off sabotage of Japanese living in this country just after Pearl Harbor? We interned them

Why can't we do the same for Communists now? The war in which we are now engaged is just as real as the one we waged against Germany and Japan.

Prime Minister Nehru, speaking to India's Parliment last week, called the invasion of Cuba "dangerous precedent" and blasted the United States.

By coincidence, Nehru took the US to task the same day that India's top finance official left New Delhi for Washington to ask for 638 million dollars in aid.

We've really bought ourselves a staunch friend in India. We say cut them-off--with a dull knife.

We Do Not Intend To Abandon Cuba

Full text of an address by President Kennedy as delivered to the American Society of Newspaper Editors in Washington, D. C., April 20, 1961:

The President of a great democracy such as ours, and the editors of great newspapers such as yours, owe a common obligation to the people: an obligation to present the facts, to present them with candor, and to present them in perspective. It is with that obligation in mind that I have decided in the last 24 hours to discuss briefly at this time the recent events in Cuba.

On that unhappy island, as in so many other arenas of the contest for freedom, the news has grown worse instead of better. I have emphasized before that this was a struggle of Cuban patriots against a Cuban dictator. While we could not be expected to hide our sympathies, we made it repeatedly clear that the armed forces of this country would not intervene in any way.

Any unilateral American intervention, in the absence of an external attack upon ourselves or an ally, would have been contrary to our traditions and to our international obligations. But let the record show that our restraint is not inexhaustible. Should it ever appear that the inter-American doctrine of noninterference merely conceals or excuses a policy of nonaction—if the nations of this Hemisphere should fail to meet their commitments against outside Communist penetration—then I want it clearly understood that this Government will not hesitate in meeting its primary obligations which are to the security of our nation.

Should that time ever come, we do not intend to be lectured on "intervention" by those whose character was stamped for all time on the bloody streets of Budapest. Nor would we expect or accept the same outcome which this small band of gallant Cuban refugees must have known that they were chancing, determined as they were against heavy odds to pursue their courageous attempts to regain their island's freedom.

But Cuba is not an island unto itself; and our concern is not ended by mere expressions of nonintervention or regret.

This is not the first time in either ancient or recent history that a small band of freedom fighters has engaged the armor of totalitarianism.

It is not the first time that Communist tanks have rolled over gallant men and women fighting to redeem the independence of their homeland. Nor is it by any means the final episode in the eternal struggle of liberty against tyranny, anywhere on the face of the globe, including Cuba itself.

Mr. Castro has said that these were mercenaries. According to press reports, the final message to be relayed from the refugee forces on the beach came from the rebel commander when asked if he wished to be evacuated. His answer was: "I will never leave this country." That is not the reply of a mercenary. He has gone now to join in the mountains countless other guerrilla fighters, who are equally determined that the dedication of those who gave their lives shall not be forgotten, and that Cuba must not be abandoned to the Communists. And we do not intend to abandon it either.

The Cuban people have not yet spoken their final piece—and I have no doubt that they and the Revolutionary Council, led by Dr. Cardona—and members of the families of the Revolutionary Council, I am informed by the Doctor yesterday, are involved, themselves, in the islands—will continue to speak up for a free and independent Cuba.

Meanwhile, we will not accept Mr. Castro's attempts to blame this nation for the hatred with which his one-time supporters now regard his repression. But there are, from this sobering episode, useful lessons for us all to learn. Some may still be obscure, and await further information. Some are clear today:

First, it is clear that the forces of Communism are not to be underestimated, in Cuba or anywhere else in the world. The advantages of a police state—its use of mass terror and arrests to prevent the spread of free dissent—cannot be overlooked by those who expect the fall of every fanatic tyrant. If the self-discipline of the free cannot match the iron discipline of the mailed fist—in economic, political, scientific and all the other kinds of struggle as well as the military—then the peril to freedom will continue to rise.

Secondly, it is clear that this nation, in concert with all the free nations of this Hemisphere, must take an ever-closer and more-realistic look at the menace of external Communist intervention and domination in Cuba. The American people are not complacent about Iron Curtain tanks and planes less than 90 miles from their shore.

But a nation of Cuba's size is less a threat to our survival than it is a base for subverting the survival of other free nations throughout the Hemisphere. It is not primarily our interest or our security but theirs which is now, today, in the greater peril. It is for their sake, as well as our own, that we must show our will.

The evidence is clear—and the hour is late. We and our Latin friends will have to face the fact that we cannot postpone any longer the real issue of survival of freedom in this Hemisphere itself. On that issue, unlike perhaps some others, there can be no middle ground. Together, we must build a Hemisphere where freedom can flourish; and where any free nation under outside attack of any kind can be assured that all of our resources stand ready to respond to any request for assistance.

Third, and finally, it is clearer than ever that we face a relentless struggle in every corner of the globe that goes far beyond the clash of armies or even nuclear armaments. The armies are there, and in large number. The nuclear armaments are there. But they serve primarily as the shield behind which subversion, infiltration and a host of other tactics steadily advance, picking off vulnerable areas one by one in situations which do not permit our own armed intervention.

Power is the hallmark of this offensive—power and discipline and deceit. The legitimate discontent of yearning people is exploited. The legitimate trappings of self-determination are employed. But, once in power, all talk of discontent is repressed—all self-determination disappears—and the promise of a revolution of hope is betrayed, as in Cuba, into a reign of terror.

Those who on instruction staged automatic "riots" in the streets of free nations over the efforts of a small group of young Cubans to regain their freedom should recall the long roll call of refugees who cannot now go back—to Hungary, to North Korea, to North Vietnam, to East Germany, or to Poland, or to any of the other lands from which a steady stream of refugees pours forth, in eloquent testimony to the cruel oppression now holding sway in their homeland.

We dare not fail to see the insidious nature of this new and deeper struggle. We dare not fail to grasp the new concepts, the new tools, the new sense of urgency we will need to combat it—whether in Cuba or South Vietnam.

And we dare not fail to realize that this struggle is taking place every day, without fanfare, in thousands of villages and markets, day and night, and in classrooms all over the globe.

The message of Cuba, of Laos, of the rising din of Communist voices in Asia and Latin America—these messages are all the same. The complacent, the self-indulgent, the soft societies are about to be swept away with the debris of history. Only the strong, only the industrious, only the determined, only the courageous, only the visionary who determine the real nature of our struggle can possibly survive.

No greater task faces this country or this Administration. No other challenge is more deserving of our every effort and energy. Too long we have fixed our eyes on traditional military needs, on armies prepared to cross borders, on missiles poised for flight. Now it should be clear that this is no longer enough—that our security may be lost piece by piece, country by country, without the firing of a single missile or the crossing of a single border.

We intend to profit from this lesson. We intend to reexamine and reorient our forces of all kinds, our tactics and our institutions here in this community. We intend to intensify our efforts for a struggle in many ways more difficult than war, where disappointment will often accompany us.

For I am convinced that we in this country and in the free world possess the necessary resources, and the skill and the added strength that comes from a belief in the freedom of man.

And I am equally convinced that history will record the fact that this bitter struggle reached its climax in the late 1950s and the early 1960s.

Let me then make clear, as the President of the United States, that I am determined upon our system's survival and success, regardless of the cost and regardless of the peril.

ONE MORE WEEKEND of geological tours remain. Students of West Texas State College are serving as guides. Approximately 500 people made the tour last weekend.

Geology Tours End Saturday Afternoon

Weekend attendance at the Third Annual Palo Duro Field Trip, sponsored by the West Texas State College Geological Society approached 500, according to Charles McDaniel, president of the society.

McDaniel said groups from Clarendon, Amarillo, Bovina, White Deer, Dalhart, Hale Center, Slaton, Dimmit, and San Jon New Mexico, schools made up the bulk of the weekend tours.

Two types of tours are offered. McDaniel said groups can choose to either ride or walk down to the Canyon floor.

Information about the canyon's geological history and settlement by man is explained throughout the tour.

College students are acting as guides.

Tours are slated for Friday and Saturday, April 29-30, according to McDaniel. Reservations may be made by calling the college geology department.

. Jack T. Jughes, head of the geology department, has worked closely with students planning the tour.

Cost per person is 80 cents. This includes admission at the park gate, guides and a booklet about the park.

Triplett Wins Speaking Honors

Joe Triplett, took first place honors at an FFA district public speaking contest held at Boy's Ranch Wednesday, April 19.

At the same meeting Patsy Robinson, Canyon FFA chapter sweetheart, was runnerup for district sweetheart. Triplett was also nominated for a state office.

Five applicants for state Lone Star Farmer degrees were submitted by Ed Dwyer. They are Henry Meyer, Wesley Bourn, Orville Ladehoff, Jerry Ham and Noel Howard.

Business Grads Accept Positions

Dr. C. C. Callarman, chairman of West Texas State College, Business School, reports that several students graduating from the school of business have accepted employment.

Among them are Donnie Bowman, Baylor Law School; Joe Frank Brooks, Kraft Cheese, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Bill W. Burns, Shamrock Oil, Amarillo; Ralph Don Hundley, Tommy Martin, real estate, Amarillo; Stanley King Elliot, Farmers Elevator, Canyon; Joe C. Embry, upon completion of service with armed forces, Levelland Cotton Gin; Kenneth O. Floyd, Pinkney Packing, Amarillo, and Gerald W. Free, First National Bank, Canyon.

Olan Lee Barkley, Robert D. Barrick and Billy Van Lightsey will go directly into the Armed Forces.

MAGGARD'S GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Maggard, Vega, visited in the Bob Rivers home Tuesday evening.

SORORITY COFFEE HONORS DIRECTOR

A coffee honoring Mrs. H. G. Stallworth, Austin, province alumnea director for Delta Zeta, was given Saturday in the William Wilson home.

Mrs. Stallworth was in the area on an annual offical visit to the Amarillo chapter. She was accompanied on her visit to Canyon by Miss Sue Lynn Carrill, Amarillo, president of Zeta Zeta Chapter of Delta Zeta at West Texas State.

Mrs. Stallworth discussed requirements necessary for the Canyon alumnae group to be chartered and presented them with a petition for charter.

Happy Contest Play wins 2nd

The one-act contest play from Happy, "Liliom", directed by Margaret Echols Moore, placed second in the Interscholastic League contest.

Kay Harman and Lin Frost were on the all-star cast.

Potter and Randall Counties have a "loan closet" that offers free hospital supplys to cancer patients. Mr. Charles Wright is in charge of it.

Night Game Ends Spring Season

Wide-open football that promises a lot of scoring will be in store for football fans Saturday night when West Texas State winds up spring training with an intra-squad game in new Buffalo Bowl. Kick-off time is 8 p.m.

If past scrimmages can be used for a measuring stick, the final score may look more like a basketball result. In last week's full-game scrimmage, the four competing team tallied a total of 13 touchdowns, some of which were of the sensational variety.

Coach Joe Kerbel wants his quarterbacks to throw the ball a lot and his running attack has a lot of imagination. Quick pitch-outs, reverses, end sweeps and shovel passes are all a part of the Kerbel repertorire, and they are designed to win ball games as well as keep the fans interested.

Apparently, Coach Kerbel has the "horses" to perform this kind of magic. In the passing department, quarterbacks Hoot Gibson, Bob Ezell, John David Bryant and Norman McKinley have displayed outstanding skill. Most of the backs are good receivers, and ends Benny George, Dean Faulkenberry, Joe Granato, Jim Perry, Howard Verrinder and Charlie Williams have diplayed good touch.

Speed has been prevalent in recent drills and that is something West Texas has lacked for 10 years. Pistol Pete Pedro, a 160-pound sophomore from Lynn, Mass., impressed observers Saturday with his speed and running ability. Another sophomore, Jerry Richardson of Canyon was equally impressive with his speed and turned in some great runs.

Saturday's game will be free to everyone, and fans will have an opportunity to get a good look at what the Buffs will offer next fall.

Banquet Climaxes WT College Press Convo

Section meetings, at which six visiting speakers talked on current communications problems, and a banquet climaxed by the presentation of awards highlighted the 49th annual convention here at West Texas State College of the Texas Intercollegiate Press Association Saturday.

Most honors in TIPA's annual contests, handled this year by Texas Western College, went to students and publications of East Texas State, Texas Western, and Southwest Texas State colleges.

Site of next year's convention was set at Southwest Texas State in San Marcos, and West Texas State's journalism department will direct the association's contests.

Two second places in individual contest were earned by WT's journalists. Larry Lewis, editor of the Prairie, was awarded a second place in sports columns, and Carol Haseloff, junior from Dumas, earned a second in feature writing.

Former WT freshman and now at McMurry College, Gayle McAnally, earned a second place in one-act play writing. She once served as a Canyon News reporter. Henry Werner of Galveston, now attending WT, and formerly of Sul Ross State, was first place winner in one-act plays. He was competing through the Sul Ross press club.

Main speaker for the banquet was Eugene Sharp, professor of journalism at the University of Missouri. Section speakers were Ralph Wayne, news director of KFDA-TV in Amarillo; H. A. Tuck, news editor of the Hereford Brand; Louise Evans, editor of the editoral pages of the Amarillo Daily News & Globe-Times; Thomas Walker, manager of the annual division, the Hurley Company of Camden, Arkansas; W. H. Graham, Jr., publisher of the Plains Publishing Company, Friona; and Dr. Otha Spencer, professor at East Texas State.

History Students Slate Cafeteria Banquet Friday

A banquet, to be attended jointly by members of the History Club and Phi Alpha Theta, national honorary history fraternity, has been scheduled here at West Texas State College Friday.

The affair will be at 7 p.m. in the Blue Room of the cafeteria, and members may obtain tickets from the presidents of the two organizations or from the history department offices in the Administration Building.

Speaker for the banquet will be Dr. Timothy P. Donovan, assistant professor of history at Texas Technological College. Topic will be on "Henry Adams and Brooks Adams: Their Message for the Historian."

A book dealing with the two Adamses by Dr. Donovan was recently published by the University of Oklahoma Press. The book was originally for his doctoral dissertation written by Donovan two years ago when he was a graduate student at Oklahoma.

He became interested in the Adams brothers when he wrote his master's thesis on John Quincy Adams, their grandfather.

This is Dr. Donovan's first year to teach at Tech. He earned his B. A. degree in 1949 and his M.A. in 1950 at Oklahoma. He taught at Oklahoma Military Academy from 1950-1957. He obtained his doctorate in 1960.

Presiding at the banquet will be Cathy Morris of Canyon, president of the History Club. Jo Ann Byrd, Claude senior, is president of Phi Alpha Theta.

History Contests Begin On College Campus

Third annual contests in United States and world history, slated here at West Texas State College today (Thursday), are expected to attract more than 500 area high school history students.

Sponsored by the WT history department, the contests last year saw nearly 200 students participating from 18 schools. According to Dr. Lowell H. Harrison, department head, nearly 30 schools have entered contestants this year.

Trophies will be awarded first and second place winners in each of the two contests, and certificates will be given to third, fourth and fifth place winners. The awards are given by the WT Ex-Students Association.

Program opens at 9:30 a.m. with registration, and a genera meeting will be held in the Administration Building auditorium at 10 a.m. A welcome will be given by Dr. James P. Cornette, president of WT.

The tests are scheduled simultaneously from 10: 30 until 12, with a luncheon in the cafeteria from 12:30 until 1:15 p.m. Luncheon speaker will be Fred Rathjen, assistant professor of history at WT, who will talk on "Buffalo Hunting on the Texas Plains."

Awards, presented by Milton Morris, executive secretary of the Ex-Students Association, will be given at the luncheon.

Kutumba Rao Speaks On Religion

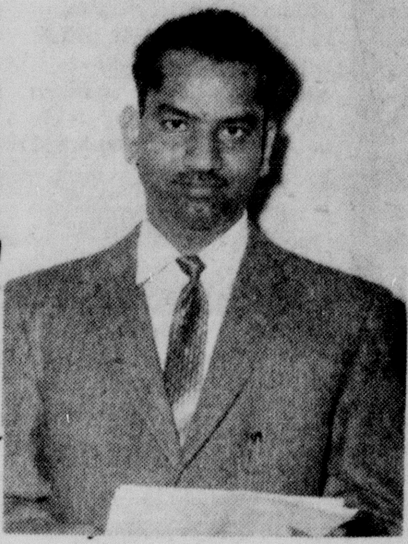
"Hinduism is not a religion, but a philosophy of life." Kutumba Rao told those attending evening services at the First Christian Church Sunday.

Mr. Rao, Waltair, south India, spoke to the group on Hinduism and living conditions in India.

He is the superintendent of Andra University and is here to get a Master's Degree in Government.

Rao is married and has two children, a girl Santi and a boy Stidhar.

He told the assembly that while India is the seventh largest nation in the world, it ranks second in population. Agriculture is the major means of income. The maximum farm is 10 acres.



KUTUMBA RAO

The population is 85% Hindu, 10% Moslem, 3% Christians and 2% other religions.

Hinduism, although not in the strictest sense of the word considered a religion, is the accepted code of ethics and morals for most of the population. Having no founder it is evolved from the nation's folk lore and myths. It lays down no dogmas, but its adherents believe in the oneness of God and all religions.

Mahatma Gandhi, founder of the nation, expressed the ideas of Hinduism as being live and let live and the pursuit of truth for truth is God. Its five basic precepts are purity, self-control, detachment, truth and non-violence.

At one time it divided the people into classes or castes. One was born into a caste and could not advance.

The highest caste was the caste of priests and scholars; the next was soldiers; the next was merchants; the next was laborers and the last (though not offically recognized) was the untouchable caste. This system of social distinction is rapidly dissolving as are many of the old ways.

Hinduism divides a man's life into four parts growth and adolescence, householder, public worker and recluse. It also teaches the law of Karma (causation) which advocates that each individual must pass through a series of lives before he can attain spiritual perfection (re-incarnation) and that our life is determined by what we have been in past lives and will help determine what we will be in future lives.

While Hinduism accepts only one God it gives different names to his functions. God the protector is called Krishna, much as Christians distinguish God and Father and God the Son.

"India today," Mr. Rao says, "is a nation of great people struggling to do a great job." Their government is a democratic republic and functions much like the U. S. Government. Prime Minister Nehru is the leader of the state and formulator of the foreign policy.

"The people," Rao says, "are all behind him. They like his foreign policy which keeps us a neutral nation."

In 1950 a planning commission was set up that organizes in three year cycles, plans for raising living and educational standards. At the end of the present three year plan India hopes to have accomplished the complete nullification of the caste system and the enforcement of compulsory education laws.

The status of women has probably shown the widest margin of improvement. Once she was considred property that was buried with her husband when he died. Now she votes, holds public office and works at the career of her choice.

"Having lived in the United States, especially during the year of the Presidential election, I feel that I have the same true spirit of a free democracy in action. I will return and explain to my people the things that I have seen." Mr. Rao said. "In her time of growth India needs your help, understanding and encouragement."

Get in on Chevy's brand of savings
at your Chevy dealer's
TRUCK ROUNDUP

Western star Roy Rogers spreads the good word for your local dealer! "Right now he's making it easier than ever to own America's easiest riding truck. That's Chevy — the truck that saves you plenty with its special brand of Independent Front Suspension."

Just pick the model that fits your job and you can be sure you're putting your truck dollars where they'll do the most good. You'll get a super-efficient power to capacity ratio, a truck that's Sturdi-Bilt clear through, a king-size cab to keep your driver happy. And savings that just naturally go along with Chevrolet's I.F.S. ride.

You save on maintenance costs. I.F.S. lengthens truck life and protects cargoes by soaking up as much as 78% of all objectionable road shock and vibration. Your truck keeps working for extra thousands of miles! How in the world can you go wrong! Especially now—during truck roundup time!

Chevy's hefty Jobmaster 6, standard in Series 60 middleweights, is known far and wide for its fuel-saving performance.

CHEVROLET I.F.S. TRUCKS

Chevy's famous Thriftmaster 6 does the saving in this Fleetside model. It's the most highly respected truck 6 ever put under a hood. Explorer Scouts Face Year Filled With Work

Scout Explorer Post 66 has embarked on an ambitious itinerary for the year in an effort to win first prize this time in the Sears Foundation Award Program.

Bob White, post advisor, claims that some of Canyon's outstanding boys belong to Post 66. The record bears him out. The tropp has 28 members.

Bob is a geologist with Statex Petroleum Company in Amarillo. President of the explorer post is Clark de Schweinitz. Bill Cornette is associate advisor.

Last year the post took second place and won $550. The previous year the boys won $250 by taking ninth place. The money has gone into an interest-free Explorer student loan fund.

So far, the money has not been touched and is drawing interest.

The post kicked off its program Monday night at a meeting at First Christian Church. Joe Gidden, Roland Black and Raymond Raillard, all representing the Canyon Chamber of Commerce, met with the group to ask its help in the forthcoming clean up campaign here.

Marion Higdon, postmaster, discussed an Explorer plan to number all Canyon houses.

Here are some of the things the Post is doing and will do this year.

Five Explorers will meet regularly as instructors with Scout Troop 66. Two Explorers will assist in instructing Scout Troop 31.

Explorers are furnishing instructions and supervision for weekly rifle shooting for Canyon scouts under NRA-BSA rules.

Explorers will opeate a teenage employment office in cooperation with Canyon Chamber of Commerce. The office will be located at the Chamber of Commerce office and will be open every week day afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 o'clock. The office will be operated from April 26 until the end of school.

The post is working to improve Canyon's civil defense program and is taking a leading part in its operation and man power supply.

All members of the post have pledged 20 hours of work to the improvement of Llano Estacado Council's Camp Don Harrington. Each member plans to initiate and carry out some outstanding achievement in his home.

Plans call for the post to become equivalent of a leadership club in the high school, working closely with school officials and setting examples of leadership and responsibility. To implement this program the group will endeavor to recruit at least 12 freshmen and sophomores who are medium to excellent students and who are engaged in one or more school activities.

Members of the post will strive to promote patriotism. The post will send two members to the Explorer Delegate Conference in Oklahoma City in June. Members will be encouraged to advance through Scouting ranks.

In cooperation with Canyon ministers, Explorers will seek ways to assist the city's senior citizens.

First prize in the Sears Award Program is $880.

"Should we have the good fortune of winning a cash award," said White, "we will add it to our student loan fund which now totals $800. Members of our post who graduated from high school last year did not need to borrow from the fund and we have no member graduating this year.

"However, next year we will have a number of members graduating and almost certainly will have heavy calls on the loan fund. We also are considering an annual $100 scholarship for the outstanding Explorer in the Canyon High School graduating class."

SOIL CONSERVATION DISTRICT NEWS

OUR SOIL ★ OUR STRENGTH

How much land do we have that is subject to wind and water erosion? How much damage has already occured? These and many other questions are being answered by the Standard Soil Survey now in progress in Randall county.

This survey began in 1956. To date the soil in 46 percent of the county has been mapped. The survey is a part of the National Cooperative Soil Survey. It is a cooperative project of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the state colleges of agriculture. The purpose is to get a complete inventory of the agricultural land of the nation and learn as much about it as possible.

The soil scientist uses power soil-augers mounted on pickup trucks, spades and other soil sampling equipment. Soils information is recorded on aerial photographs that were taken from about 15,000 feet high. When the survey is completed, these photographs will be made into a soils map of the county.

The soils are grouped according to their adaptabilty to produce common farm crops. They are grouped according to what they can be expected to do, to their limitations for production, and to the risk of soil damage in case of their misuse.

Farmers and ranchers not only receive benefit from these surveys but land appraisers find soil surveys provide useful information on which to base land values, county and community planning officials use them, engineering interpretations concerning the suitability of soils for use in and support of roads, buildings, etc., oil and gas companies use soil surveys to plan routes of pipelines where corrosion and cost will be less.

The soil survey in Randall county is to be completed in December 1962.

MRS. LOUISE WITKOWSKI holds a string of black bass she and "Wit" Witkowski caught last week at Falcon Lake near Laredo. The lake lies on the international boundary of the United States and Mexico.

Farmer Brown Lands Record Conchas Bass

M. B. "Farmer" Brown returned this week from Lake Conchas holding the record catch for black bass at the lake.

He set the record with an eight and one-half pound fish.

"I caught it with a Bushwhacker plug at about 7 p.m. fishing in shallow, brushy water," he said.

Brown would not disclose the exact spot on the laker where he took the fish.

"I thought it was a big pike when I first snagged him, Brown said. "He didn't put up much of a fight but I could feel the heavy drag."

Frank Bounds of Canyon was in the boat with Brown when he hooked the fish.

Just before Brown landed the record bass, Bounds had hooked a five pound specimen. At that time both men thought it might be a record catch for the lake.

Brown's fish is presently being mounted in Amarillo. It will be on display at the North Dock, managed by Lee Teague.

Brown said the previous record set at Conchas was a seven and one-half pound bass.

M. B. "FARMER" BROWN, noted Canyon Fisherman, now holds the record black bass catch at Lake Conchas with an eight and one-half pound specimen. Brown said the previous recorded catch was seven and one-half pounds. The fish at right weighs five pounds and was snagged by Frank Bounds. Neither would disclose the exact location of the catches.

CHS Students Win Berths At State Meet

Two Canyon High School students won first places at the regional interscholastic meet in Lubbock Saturday in the poetry reading division, according to Mrs. Lee Foster, high school teacher.

Mrs. Foster said the two will next enter competition at Austin May 4.

She and J. E. Miller will accompany the students.

You had better pack your boat and car and be ready to leave on a moment's notice. This fishing will break loose in the next ten days. White bass from Oklahoma show them about to spawn. Crappie are being taken now whenever the wind stops blowing.

New Mexico fishing at Conchas has started with a few bass, crappie and pike being taken. All of Texas has been affected by the strong winds. Most of the lakes are very murky. April is our last windy month so we can bet we'll have some good fishing days.

Buffalo Lake is coming back in the fishing department. Good catches of crappie were brought in last Wednesday. There have been many good strings of channel cat and yellow cat taken in the last three weeks.

I spent several house at the lake Saturday evening and counted nearly 50 separate camps of picnickers and overnight campers. The water is very clear and there are all kinds of camping places free from the wind and sand.

Why not go out and enjoy the Panhandle's largest lake?

TELEPHONE TALK

by Al Leach, Manager

Dear Telephone Customer:

Since I didn't get a chance to say goodbye to all of you before I left, I thought I might use the column for that purpose. Your new manager here in Canyon is an old friend of mine by the name of Gene Adkisson. I know when you get acquainted with Gene you'll like him as much as I do. He's been with the telephone company for the past 12 years, and has worked at Dallas, Lubbock, and Sweetwater before he became manager here. His wife's name is Virginia, and like Gene, she's a native Texan. They have one child, Gena, who is four years old. Chances are you may run into Gene on the street or at a civic club meeting. When you do, don't be hesitant about going up to him and saying howdy. Like I say he's a real friendly fellow and I know that he will enjoy meeting you.

As for me, I am now in Lubbock. When you get down that way give me a call at the division office of the telephone company--or drop by our offices. I'll be mighty glad to see any of you that happen to be down on the South Plains for a visit. It's been a real pleasure serving you as your telephone company manager and I really mean it when I say I'm going to miss seeing you and the rest of my many friends here.

Sincerely
Al Leach

SPRING PHONE FAIR

Well, by now most of us in Canyon don't need the weather man to tell us spring is here. There are signs of it everywhere. Have you noticed the kids lately. . .skipping rope, swinging bats, and chasing pop flies.

The grown-ups too, are busy around the house. Painting and rearranging rooms, even adding on to the house itself to make it more comfortable for the family.

We're busy at the telephone company, too, getting ready for spring with an event called Spring Phone Fair. It is to be our way of reminding you about the many new telephone services we have to help you make your home more convenient and attractive.

For instance, how about a new phone in color for a bedroom? Or a wall phone for the kitchen, playroom or work area? Perhaps you'd like the smart Princess phone for your living room. . . . so little, so lovely and it lights. Or maybe you'd prefer the soft musical tones of the bell chime. You can see all of these new telephone services on display at our Spring Phone Fair in the Canyon telephone business office.

If you don't get a chance to see them and would like more information, just call OL5-2151--or ask any telephone service man.

FREE PROGRAMS FOR YOUR GROUP

Since some Canyon civic, church and social groups already are planning spring programs, this seems like a good time to remind you of our standing offer to provide entertaining and informative telephone programs for your orgainization.

A booklet describing the variety of programs available--films, talks, lecture-demonstrations, telephone tours-- is yours for the asking. Just call the telephone business office, OL5-2151.

Call by number. It's twice as fast.
